About Tom Rossau

THE ESSENCE of Tom Rossau's design philosophy lies in the curvaceous landscape and ethereal light of Odsherred, the place he was born and raised. With a focus on the intriguing relationship between geometry, materiality, and light, Rossau's work is a celebration of timeless craftsmanship and elevated design. The essence of a Tom Rossau lamp lies in its transformative nature. The design must hold its own in natural daylight but with a mere flick of a switch, the lamp comes to life and illuminates spaces with warmth, ambiance and atmosphere.

Designed and made in Denmark

TOM ROSSAU'S DESIGN ethos revolves around the versatile use of strips, a hallmark of the brand's identity. The designs are shaped by the unique qualities of materials like wood, paper and metal, guiding the hand-built production process in Copenhagen. From the tactile feeling of wood, to the sleek luminosity of aluminium, the materials play with light in captivating ways and every intersection narrates a story of craftsmanship and innovation. Embark on a sensory journey with the Tom Rossau collection, where sight and touch merge in harmony.

What began over 20 years ago as a spontaneous experiment in Tom Rossau's Copenhagen workshop has evolved into a distinctive design philosophy. While shaping wooden slats into a cylindrical form, Tom discovered the expressive potential of light, material, and form, and a new chapter in Danish lighting design was born.

Today, the collection has grown to include a wide range of materials and styles, yet the brand remains rooted in curiosity, craftsmanship, and sculptural design. Each lamp is still meticulously designed and handcrafted in Copenhagen, with a strong focus on quality and responsible production, bringing Danish design to interiors around the world.
